Dear Parent or Carer,

RE: Revision Materials

As you will be aware, all students in Year 13 have been provided with a £50 allocation to purchase revision materials, in order to assist them at home with their revision for their A Level examinations. Subject Leaders have provided us with a list of revision materials appropriate for the relevant exam boards and these can be viewed through the order link at the bottom of the letter.

We recommend that students prioritise the spending of their allowance by ensuring that they have revision guides for all their subjects and use any remaining allowance to buy appropriate workbooks flashcards, or revision materials. We would like students to submit their order by Monday 12 December so that the students can obtain their revision materials when we return in January. Students can do this using the link below after viewing the resource catalogue that is included with this email.

Yours faithfully,
